From cupcakes to empanadas, this class is your recipe to fun. Your child will create a different treat based on the theme of the week. Every child will make his/her own cookbook to take home at the end of the session.

Start your child off at the head of her preschool class! This class will engage your child in an educational environment, helping he/she gain independence, share with friends, and enhance fine and motor skills through arts and crafts and music and movement. Trial separation from adult occurs at end of session.
